

one. Perhaps there will be later a rejoining. If we part as enemies with hostility and anger it will be so hard to come together again. Of course the best solution will be to part at all!

Mgr. Ian looks back how it has come that there is such an extreme difference between the

Rev. Evelein wants to contribute to the discussion that he sees that we need another way of thinking in the LCC, and he refers to the writings of Prof Van der Stok. He has written about the work of the World Mother. he thinks the situation in the Netherlands is a turning point for our church; the ordination of women must not be seen as something substantial, but we have to think much more deeper. We have the chance to bring in the feminine approach mn tacoR4dc0.01.16 TD-0
